

Our original ?Chick in the Hole? experiment for Yorkshire Pudding Day was pretty good.

The recipe is here

But clearly a Chicken dinner needs stuffing even if it?s been shoehorned into a giant Yorkshire Pudding! So?.

There are a Sage bush and a Rosemary bush just down the road. Armed with fresh herbs and a bit of time we cobbled this new version together.

Gluten free Yorkshire Pudding with finely chopped Rosemary added. Half a roasted Chicken in the middle. Surrounded by home made Gluten free Sage & Onion Stuffing balls. Oh and lashing of gravy after I'd taken the picture!

Unfortunately typing is difficult this morning, I may have inadvertently bitten a few fingers off scrabbling for the left overs this morning!

If anybody would like to "Buy us a Coffee" please feel free proceeds beyond our bandwidth cost are donated to local charities.